

Kenora/Rainy River District Palliative Care Volunteer Program Spring Workshop

Ethical and Spiritual Issues

Doug Smith

MA, MS, MDiv

Doug is a seasoned trainer, consultant and counselor, has worked in diverse settings ranging from hospitals to social services agencies. He has trained psychotherapists and other professionals who work in these areas.

A recipient of three master degrees in three different healthcare disciplines, Doug thinks his varied background gives him a truly holistic perspective. He is known for embracing the physical, psychological, and spiritual dimensions of patients and clients. Doug has written several books, including The Tao of Dying and Caregiving; Hospice-proven Techniques for Healing Body and Soul.

DIFFERENT WAYS OF GRIEVING– this workshop looks at the difference between intuitive and instrumental grievers, their different styles of grieving and healing. Lots of practical tools are presented.

ETHICS AND BOUNDARIES– Explores the importance of making early referrals to hospice, examining the ethical/moral implications of choosing palliative care.

EXPLORING AND ENHANCING SPIRITUALITY – This workshop looks at the spiritual model of care to complement the medical model.

Sponsored in part by

Lakehead
UNIVERSITY

Centre for Education and Research
on Aging & Health

DATE

April 28, 2014
7:00p.m.-9:00p.m.
April 29, 2014
9:00a.m– 4:00p.m.

PLACE

Minis Hall Super 8
240 Lakeview Drive,
Kenora, Ontario

EVENING SESSION

April 28, 2014
7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m.
Minis Hall @ Super 8
240 Lakeview Drive
Kenora Ontario

EVENING TOPIC

Different Ways of Grieving
Different Ways of Healing

COST

$40.00 day and evening
session. (lunch is included in the day session)

$10.00 evening session
only April 28th

To Register or for more information contact:

Sharon McIsaac
Regional Coordinator
Palliative Care Volunteer Program

468 4454

sharonmcisaac@kenoradistricthomes.ca

toll free 1 866 698 4454

Kenora/Rainy River
Palliative Care Volunteer Program is pleased to present:

Ethical and Spiritual Issues

By Doug Smith

REGISTRATION FORM

Deadline for registration:
April 24 2014

Names

Please print clearly

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Position: _____

*Organizations name if applicable:

*Mailing Address:

*email:

HOW TO REGISTER

Cost: $40.00 per person for both sessions(lunch included)
$10.00 for April 28th evening only
(non-refundable)

Mail completed registration form along with check to:

Kenora/Rainy River Palliative Care
Volunteer Program
1220 Valley Drive
Kenora, ON
P9N 2W7

Monday April 28th, 2014
Evening session 7-9 p.m.
Different Ways of Grieving;
Different Ways of Healing

Tuesday April 29th 2014
9:00a.m – 4:00 p.m.
Ethics and Boundaries
Exploring and Enhancing Spirituality

Pre-registration 8:30 a.m.-
9:00a.m.

Being Held at:

MINIS HALL @ The Super 8
240 Lakeview Drive
Kenora, On.

For more information contact:
Sharon McIsaac@ 468 4454 or sharon.mcisaac@kenoradistrict
homes.ca

SPONSORED IN PART BY:

Centre for Education
& Research on Aging and Health

Lakehead
UNIVERSITY